Strange things Stamp Collectors Save

Stamp collectors are savers. We save not only stamps, but articles about stamps, old catalogs, and old price lists, just to name a few things. The list can go on forever because no two collectors are the same.

Recently a donation of stamps to Stamp Collecting Clubs For Kids included a very old price list (1910) for stamps, offered for sale by a dealer in New York City named Joseph F. Negreen. In the notes at the bottom of the cover, he indicates that any order under 50¢ would have to pay an additional 2¢ for postage.

Negreen also states that his inventory of United States stamps is “one of the largest” and is valued at over $50,000.00.

In addition to stamps of the United States, Negreen offers stamps from many other countries, including numerous “dead” countries – countries that today no longer issue stamps under the same name. Also offered are packets of stamps, coins, and a variety of stamp and coin collecting supplies, including hinges (10,000 hinges for 60¢) and stamp albums, (Modern Postage Stamp Album, 275 pages, 2,200 illustrations, spaces for 12,000 stamps: $1).

Looking at the prices (retail) are quite eye opening. United States Scott #1 was offered in mint condition for $2, 60¢ used. (Current Scott catalog value: mint $6,000, used $350.

The $5 Columbian Exposition was offered at face value - $5 ! Used - $4. Current Scott catalog value: mint $2,300, used $1,150.

Looking at the prices in bygone eras can give a stamp collector a connection with our stamp collecting ancestors. If they had not saved these stamps, the stamps would not be here now for us to enjoy!

Stamp Collecting Clubs for Kids is a 501(c)(3) organization.

Donations are greatly appreciated and if $10 or more you will be sent a written receipt.

PRICES OF UNITED STATES STAMPS

The prices herein quoted are lower than those of any other dealer, and are strictly NET (to either dealers or collectors), but as a special concession I will give $11.00 worth of purchases for $10.00. $22.00 for $20.00. CASH WITH ORDER.
